

Site Engineer Job Description

- Follow directly all OSP activities including but not limited trenching, excavation, backfilling, HDPE pipe laying, cable jetting, cable fusion, MH/HH installing, pole installing, Arial cable implementation, OTDR testing, site survey and design routs
- Have knowledge about OTDR testing and Fusion as well as understanding of fiber design
- Daily, weekly and monthly reporting of all OSP activities and on request of OSP Supervisor
- Directly reporting and response to Regional OSP Supervisor
- Managing all OSP Karbala team activities
- Manage materials and warehouse
- Well representing Al Sard Fiber front of ITPC and Gov. Offices as well as all company local customers
- Provide fast actions and smart solutions for OSP maintenance operations
- Able to work under pressure and act as team player and have strong communication with OSP team
- Able to work on weekends and official holydays as well as over working time
- Have fast response to OSP Supervisor directions

Fusion Technical Job Description

- Follow directly all fusion activities, OTDR testing and cable laying
- Working directly to fix all underground and Arial cable cuts and maintenance operations
- Support OSP team when requires
- Able to read, understand and deploy fiber designs and routes
- Provide fast actions and smart solutions for fiber maintenance operations
- Able to work under pressure and act as team player and have strong communication with OSP team
- Able to work on weekends and official holydays as well as over working time
- Have fast response to OSP Engineer directions

Route Monitoring worker

- Have full understanding of OSP work
- Daily and rotationally survey fiber routs and feedback reports of conflicts that lead to damage our cables
- Make communications with all working teams that can damage our cables
- Daily reporting to Site Engineer and immediate report of damage
- Able to work on weekends and official holydays as well as over working time